

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

In Re Application of: Bryan Thomas Johnson
Serial Number: 10/727,459
Application Filed: 1203/2003
Application Title: ADJUSTABLE SHELVING SYSTEM
Examiner/GAU:
Attorney Docket No. 02-4274

STATEMENT

I certify that the enclosed Petition to Revive Application for Patent Abandoned Unintentionally, under 37 CFR §1.137(a), is being filed immediately after applicant became aware of the abandonment, that the entire delay was unintentional, the appropriate fee is enclosed, no terminal disclaimer is required and that the enclosed reply satisfies the deficiency of listed in the Notice to File corrected application papers, a copy of which is enclosed.

Respectfully submitted,

Janet Peyton Schafer, 32,296
Patent Attorney

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

In Re Application of: Bryan Thomas Johnson
Serial No.: 10/727,459
Application Filed: 12/03/2003
Application Title: ADJUSTABLE SHELVING SYSTEM
Examiner/GAU:
Attorney Docket No.: 02-44274

REPLY

Hon. Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington D. C. 20231

Sir:

This is responsive to the Notice to File Missing Parts issued August 23/2004. Accompanying this document is a copy of the Notice To File Missing Parts, a new set of drawings as requested, a Petition to Revive under 37 CFR § 1.137(b), Petition fee, and a statement that the delay in reply was unintentional.